Pearl Honed Marble

tumbled.com.au

These stunning natural stone tiles are cut from an extremely dense and durable marble, making them a leading option for your internal floors and walls. Pearl Honed Marble's washed out white undertones are complemented by highlights of soft grey, light copper and a cloud of soft pink. We think these natural stone tiles are an elegant choice for a master ensuite or a spectacular floor covering throughout an entire residence. We recommend a contrasting grout to highlight the stone's white veining.
